Amityville resident turns 103

Genevieve Muller celebrates with family and friends.

Dominican Village in Amityville hosted a party to celebrate the 103rd birthday of resident Genevieve Muller.

Muller was escorted into her party which was decorated in her favorite color pink. Friends, family, Dominican Village administration, staff members and residents gifted Muller with a corsage, and a 103 happy birthday cake to commemorate the special occasion.

Muller was born in Hempstead on June 26, 1913 and has resided at Dominican Village since 2009. She is best known for her strong will, participating in many activities and events, her independence, wit and warm personality.

The Paumanauke Pow Wow Committee, The Babylon Citizens Council on the Arts, and The Town of Babylon proudly present the 36th Annual Paumanauke Pow Wow

Saturday, August 6th
10am-10pm
Grand Entry
12 Noon
7pm

Sunday, August 7th
10am-5pm
Grand Entry
12 Noon

PAUMANAUKE
POW WOW

Babylon Town Hall Park
200 E. Sunrise Hwy., Lindenhurst, NY

Aztec Dancers • Traditional Dancers • Audience Participation
Traditional Drums • Native Food • Dance Competitions
Quality Traders • Specialty Dances

Rain or Shine • Bring your own chairs
Dance registration: Saturday 9AM – 11AM Only (No Exceptions!)
For More Information Contact BACCA at (631) 587-3696
or Tony Moon Hawk Langhorn at (516) 495-6076

Adults $10 • Seniors (60+) $5 • Teens 12-16 $5
Handicapped $5 • Children under 12 - FREE
www.Paumanauke.org